A Message from Father Welsh:

During these trying times as we confront the isolation brought about by the COVID-19 virus, please be assured of our oneness in Faith. While our buildings may be closed at this time, our hearts remain open to the Lord and to each other. This will be a different sort of Lent for all of us, but also perhaps one of the most spiritually profitable as we bear this cross together. Please be assured that Masses will continue to be offered for you and your intentions on a daily basis. Know that you all remain in our prayers and that we are available to you by phone, and certainly in case of any emergency. Please do not hesitate to call us if you have any concerns, questions, or simply need to talk at 215-333-0585.

The Fourth Sunday of Lent

Children of the Light

The future king, David, in today's first reading, is an example of a type of character present throughout the Hebrew scriptures. He is the child born out of place (not the eldest or most favored) who ends up receiving the promise of the covenant. The spirit of God's anointing rushes upon him. In this way, he is similar to the man born blind from today's Gospel. David's family and the blind man's community did not expect the miraculous grace of God's love to work through them. Perhaps they, too, were "blinded" by the expectations and assumptions of those around them. Yet, after being touched by God, they both came to "see" the presence of God's will for them. Both became messengers of God's will. That same Spirit of God's anointing rushed upon us at our baptism; we were given a candle as a sign of our membership in the Body of Christ, the Light from Light. Our vocation, then, is to fulfill that enlightenment, that anointing, as Ephesians tells us, by living as "children of the light."

A Message from Archbishop Perez:

"While things may look and feel different during these uncertain times, I want to be very clear that the Catholic Church in Philadelphia is not closing down. It is NOT disappearing and it will not abandon those who rely on it.

God is always by our side. He never abandons us. I invite you to join me in prayerful solidarity during this uncertain time. I remind you to keep your eyes fixed on the outstretched arms of Christ the crucified and Christ the merciful and to encounter others with charity and understanding.

Let us pray for the sick, suffering, and their caregivers as well as government and health officials. With God's grace and blessing, we will navigate the difficult waters of this challenge as a united human family, for after all is said and done, we are people of Hope!"

HOW TO PARTICIPATE IN SUNDAY MASS FROM HOME...

While we cannot gather together as a Parish family due to social distancing concerns, we most certainly can gather through modern technology!

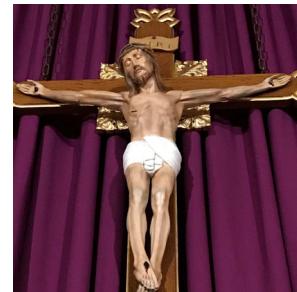

We are planning to livestream an 11:00 AM Mass using Facebook Live this Sunday, March 22. After it is streamed live, it will be available for viewing as a post on our page. Search for our Parish Facebook page by searching @StMattsMayfair. As time goes on, we are planning to livestream other Masses and liturgies, such as Benediction and Stations of the Cross. Like and Follow our Facebook page for updated information!

Fr. Artman pre-recorded Masses for the Archdiocese to be aired on Channel 6 at 5:30 AM this Sunday, March 22, and next Sunday, March 29. They will also be available for viewing on 6abc.com.

The Archdiocese will livestream the 11:00 AM Mass from the Cathedral Basilica of Ss. Peter and Paul on the Archdiocesan website: www.archphila.org, and on Archbishop Perez's Facebook page.

Visit our parish website at www.StMattsParish.org for a listing of other Daily and Sunday Masses available on air and the internet.

Please know that your priests continue to pray for you and your families during the extraordinary times. Let us all keep each other in prayer.
